 - (3) Probable cause shall be supported by a written and sworn statement based upon reliable information.

(2) The search is with the consent of the person to be searched or a person with authority over the place to be searched, after that person has been informed of his right to require the officer to obtain a search warrant.

(3) The officer has probable cause to believe that the person searched may be armed and dangerous, but any such search shall be limited to a pat down or frisk of, the subject solely to determine the existence of weapons.

Property taken as evidence shall be returned to the owner after final judgment. Property confiscated as contraband shall be destroyed, sold at public auction, retained for the benefit of the Tribe, or otherwise lawfully disposed of as ordered by the Court.

(3) The term "property" is used in this rule to include documents, books, papers and any other tangible object.

RULE 3. Arrest and Arrest Warrants.

(a) An arrest is the taking of a person into custody in a manner authorized by law. An arrest may be made by either a police or law enforcement officer or by a private person.

(b) A tribal police officer may make an arrest in obedience to an arrest warrant, or he may, without a warrant, arrest a person:

(1) For an offense committed in his presence;

(2) When he has reasonable cause to believe the person has committed an offense, although not in his presence, and there is reasonable cause for believing that such person, before a warrant can be obtained, may,

(A) Flee the jurisdiction or conceal himself to avoid arrest, or

(B) Destroy or conceal evidence of the commission of an offense, or

(C) Injure or annoy another person or damage property belonging to another person.

All persons so arrested may be returned to the reservation by the arresting officer if the arrest occurs in the State of Nebraska. Otherwise, the arrested person will be turned over to local police officials pending extradition proceedings.

(8) Notification of Rights at Time of Arrest. Upon arrest the suspect shall be advised of the following rights:

(1) Every Judge of the Tribal court shall have authority to issue warrants to arrest and such warrants shall be only upon a showing as probable cause that an offense has been committed and that there is reasonable grounds that the person named in the warrant committed it.

(2) In determining whether probable cause (reasonable grounds) exists to justify issuance of the warrant, the Tribal Judge shall examine and consider the allegations of any criminal complaint which has been filed and any sworn statements of police officers or others in support of the warrant. Unsworn statements shall not be considered unless incorporated by reference into the sworn statement of another presented to the Judge. Sworn statements offered in support of a warrant shall be evaluated by the Judge in terms of the (a) source of the information related, (b) the content of the information, (c) the recency or remoteness of the information in time, (d) the reliability and internal consistency of the information, (e) the degree to which the information rationally relates to the allegation or crime or the identity or location of a suspect of a criminal investigation.

(3) The Tribal Judge shall deny the issuance of a warrant if he finds that there is not probable cause to believe that the offense charged has been committed by the accused.

(h) Any arrest warrant issued shall contain the following information:

- (4) Signature of the issuing judge.

(A) An arrest warrant may be executed only between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. unless the accused is to be apprehended in a public place, or unless the Tribal Judge specified other hours during which the warrant may be executed.

RULE 4. Extradition.

(a) Compact Required for Extradition. No extradition shall be available under the provisions of this Code, unless both the Omaha Tribe of Nebraska and the state, county, municipal, tribal government or other entity involved have mutually and formally entered into an extradition agreement whereby either party may exercise the power of extradition.

(b) Requirement of Tribal Arrest Warrant. Except as otherwise provided by Federal law or this Code, no person shall be arrested within the jurisdiction of the Tribe for an offense committed outside that jurisdiction unless a Tribal arrest warrant has been obtained. Law enforcement officers of another jurisdiction who seek to arrest any person within the jurisdiction of the Tribe shall apply for a Tribal arrest warrant in accordance with Rule 4(c).

(c) Application for Tribal Arrest Warrant.

(1) An application by law enforcement officers of another jurisdiction for a warrant to arrest a person within a Tribal jurisdiction shall be made in a form substantially complying with Rule 3(g).

(2) The application shall be made to the Tribal Chairman who shall, after investigation, either deny the application or order that the application be approved pending a finding of probable cause by the Judge of the Tribal Court.

(3) If the application and accompanying documents give the Tribal Judge probable cause to believe a crime has been committed, that the person charged has committed it, and that the Court seeking arrest of the person has jurisdiction over the crime, then the Judge shall issue a Tribal arrest warrant to be executed and returned as are other Tribal arrest warrants.

(d) Rights of Extradition Defendant. Except as herein provided, a person arrested under this extradition procedure shall have all the rights of a defendant otherwise appearing before the Tribal Court.

(e) Arraignment and Bail of Extradition Defendant.

(1) A person arrested on the basis of an application for extradition shall be known as an extradition defendant.

(2) An extradition defendant shall be arraigned as provided in Rule 23 and asked if he wishes to waive or oppose extradition.

(3) An extradition defendant may be admitted to bail under standards appropriate to the offense with which he is charged in the other jurisdiction.

(f) Waiver of Extradition. If a defendant waives extradition he shall be transferred to the custody of the law enforcement officers of the other jurisdiction, upon their request.

(g) Opposition to Extradition. If a defendant wishes to oppose extradition, the Tribal Judge shall hold an extradition hearing as soon as possible, but not more than twenty-eight (28) days after arraignment.

(h) Extradition Hearings. At the extradition hearing, if representatives of the other jurisdiction prove that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed a crime and that the other jurisdiction has jurisdiction over the crime, then the Judge shall order extradition.

(i) Extradition Appeal. If extradition is ordered, the defendant shall be informed of his right to orally request ten (10) days to file an appeal. If the defendant does not then immediately request this time to appeal, he shall be considered to have waived his right to appeal, and he shall be transferred to the custody of law enforcement officers of the other jurisdiction, upon their request.

(j) Bail on Extradition Appeal. A defendant who has been ordered to be extradited shall be held in custody until an appeal is filed, but may be readmitted to bail after an appeal is filed.

RULE 5. Bail; Release from Custody.

(Amended by Omaha Tribal Council Resolution No. 89-29 (1/26/89))

(a) Except as herein provided, all persons arrested for offenses under this Code and incarcerated shall be given the opportunity to make bail and be released pending their trial or appeal.

(b) Bail - Release Prior to Trial - Personal Recognizance. Every person charged with a criminal offense before the Tribal Court shall be released from custody on his personal recognizance, upon a written promise to appear at trial, unless the Judge should determine that such a release will not reasonably assure the appearance of such person lawfully required by law on that release as such person will pose a significant danger to the community, the accused or any other person.

(c) Bail - Release Prior to Trial - Alternatives. Where the Judge determines that a person charged with a criminal offense should not be released on his personal recognizance, the Judge may choose from among the following alternatives to assure the appearance of the person at any time lawfully required.

(1) Release after deposit by the accused or a bondsman of bond either in cash or other sufficient collateral in an amount specified by the Judge or a bail schedule. The Judge, in his discretion, may require that the accused post only a portion of the total bond, the full sum to become due if the accused fails to appear as ordered.

(2) Release after execution of a bail agreement by one or more responsible members of the community.

(3) Release to custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to assure the accused's appearance.

(4) Release with reasonable restrictions on the travel, association or place of residence of the accused during the period of release.

(5) Release upon any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the accused as required.

(6) No release where the Judge finds, from the arguments presented or the past record of the defendant, that no conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant or that release of the defendant will pose a significant danger to the community, the accused or to any other person.

(d) Bail - Release Pending Appeal. Every person who has been convicted of a Tribal offense and who has filed an appeal or a petition for a writ of habeas corpus shall be treated in accordance with the provisions for bail here provided.

(e) A bail schedule for Class C offenses shall be adopted by the Court and a defendant may obtain release from jail at any time prior to arraignment by posting the amount or amounts of bail specified in the bail schedule for the offense or offenses charged; provided, however, that if the arresting officer or complaining witness shall certify to the jailer, or if the jailer shall certify based on his own observation, that the defendant is at the time he is brought to the jail unconscious or in an intoxicated or apparently intoxicated, condition, or for any reason does not appear to be in a conscious and sober condition, such defendant shall not be allowed to post bail according to the bail schedule for 8 hours. The defendant shall be informed by the jailer of his right to make bail at the appropriate time. Bail for Class A offenses may be set only by a judge upon consideration of the relevant factors and shall be set or denied within 72 hours following arrest.

(f) At the arraignment or other appropriate time, the judge shall set bail at an amount, not to exceed twice the maximum fine payable for the offense charged, which will tend to assure the appearance of the defendant at trial and at such other times as his appearance is necessary. A defendant may at arraignment request that any bail posted under the bail schedule be reduced or that he be released under terms other than bail as authorized elsewhere in this Title.

(g) The required bail may be tendered in the form of cash, or a bail bond executed by two or more reliable persons as sureties subject to the jurisdiction of the court in the form that the court shall by rule direct.

(h) In the event the defendant fails to appear as required, the Court will forfeit any cash deposited or order the sureties of the bail bond to pay the designated amount to the court. The liability of the sureties may be enforced by order of the Court without the necessity of an independent action or judgment.

(i) The Court may order the forfeiture of bail for non-appearance set aside if it appears that justice does not require the enforcement of the forfeiture.

(j) The right to be released on bail as provided herein shall not accrue until charges under this Code shall have been filed. Persons incarcerated in the Tribal jail for violation of Federal and State laws shall be subject to be released on bail by the jurisdiction under which authority and laws the arrest was made.

Upon arrest of an individual solely for violation of Federal law, custody of the arrested party shall immediately be given to the appropriate Federal authority. If federal authorities fail to accept custody of the arrested party and make arrangements with the Chief of Police to physically remove the arrested party from the Tribal jail, or to pay the Tribal jail to hold said party as a Federal prisoner, the Chief of Police shall release said party from custody upon 24 hours notice to the appropriate U.S. Attorney and to the Tribal prosecutor if no tribal charges have been filed as of that time.

Upon the Tribal Prosecutor's receipt of a written declaration of the State or U.S. Attorney, a Tribal judge, upon consideration of the criminal complaint and relevant factors, must set or deny bail within 72 hours of such declination.

RULE 6. Time Computations.

In computing any period of time in these Rules, the day of the act or event from which the designated period begins to run shall not be included, and the last day of the period will be included unless it is a Saturday or Sunday or a legal holiday. RULE 7. Motions.

An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion. A motion other than one made at trial or hearing shall be in writing unless the Court permits it to be made orally. It shall state the grounds upon which it is made and shall set forth the relief or order sought. It may be supported by affidavit and/or a memorandum of points and authorities. A copy of all motions shall be served upon all parties or their counsel, and they shall be allowed to appear at a hearing before any order is issued in response to such motion, unless the Court is asked to enter an order agreed by all parties.

RULE 8. Dismissal.

(a) The prosecutor may move that a complaint be dismissed and upon the court's granting such motion the prosecution of that complaint shall cease, the defendant shall be released and any bail or bail bond released. Such a dismissal shall not be made during trial without the consent of the defendant.

(b) If there is an unreasonable and unnecessary delay in bringing a defendant to trial, the court may, on motion of the defendant or its own motion, dismiss the complaint. No delay of less than six (6) months shall be considered unreasonable under this section, provided that where the defendant is incarcerated for more than 1/2 of the maximum possible sentence for the offense(s) charged without being brought to trial, the Court may cause the charge to be dismissed under this section.

RULE 9. Service and Filing of Papers.

OMAHA TRIBAL CODE (2013)

However, if the prosecution for good cause shown, requests and is granted a delay, and if the defendant is incarcerated not having made bail, the defendant shall be released on his own recognizance pending the rescheduled trial, if the offense charged is Class B or C.

(d) No criminal trial shall be set for sooner than two (2) weeks after arraignment unless this requirement is waived by Defendant.

RULE 11. Telephone Calls.

(a) Upon request, any person arrested has the right to make at least one (1) completed telephone call to a friend or bail bondsman and at least one (1) completed telephone call to a lay counselor or attorney.

(b) The accused shall be allowed to make telephone calls immediately after being registered and identified at the jail, if there is an unreasonable delay in taking the accused to jail or in processing.

(c) A denial of the right to call a friend, bondsman, lay counselor, or attorney, under subsection (a) shall be grounds for dismissal of the case, unless the judge finds that there was a good reason for the denial.

RULE 12. Other Pre-Trial Procedures

(a) Confessions.

(1) It shall be a violation of the law to obtain a confession from an accused by means of fraud, force, threat, or a denial of the rights listed in Rule 3(f).

(e) Any defendant may request a continuance of his trial date and for good cause shown the continuance shall be granted subject to the discretion of the Court.

(f) Warrants and summons shall be served by a Tribal police officer or any other adult person designated to perform such function by a judge of the Court or the Chief of Police.

(3) An officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest; but, if he does not, he shall inform the defendant that a warrant has been issued, the nature of the charge, and shall provide the defendant with a copy of the arrest warrant and complaint not later than at the time of arraignment.

(4) If reasonably possible, a properly endorsed copy of the summons or warrant plus a copy of the complaint shall be given to the defendant at the time of service or arrest.

OMAHA TRIBAL CODE (2013)

RULE 23. Arraignment.

(Amended by Omaha Tribal Council Resolution No. 89-29 (1/26/89))

(a) As soon as reasonably possible after arrest but not more than 72 hours thereafter, the defendant shall be brought before a Tribal judge to be informed of his right before the Tribal Court, to hear the charges against him, and to enter a plea to those charges.

Upon the date and time indicated upon the summons, the defendant shall appear before a Tribal judge to be informed of his rights before the Tribal Court, to hear the charges against him, and to enter a plea to those charges.

(b) The defendant shall be provided with a copy of the criminal complaint if he has not before received one.

(c) At the time of the arraignment, the criminal complaint will be read to the defendant, and the defendant will be asked to enter a plea.

(d) The defendant will enter his plea or the Court will enter a not guilty plea for him, and he will then be advised regarding sentencing or bail as is appropriate.

RULE 24. Commitments.

(a) No person may be detained or jailed under this Code for a longer period than 36 hours unless there has been issued a commitment order bearing the signature of a judge of the Tribal Court.

(b) Pending investigation of charges or pending trial, a temporary commitment order shall be issued.

(c) A final commitment order shall be issued for persons jailed as a result of a sentence of the Tribal Court.

RULE 25. Joinder of Offenses and of Defendants.

(a) Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and all of such defendants need not be charged on each count.

RULE 26. Pleas.

(a) A defendant may plead guilty or not guilty. The Court shall not accept a plea of guilty without first addressing the defendant personally and determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea. If the defendant refuses to accept a plea of not guilty, the Court shall not enter a judgment upon a plea of guilty unless it satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea.

(b) The defendant, with the consent of the court and of the prosecuting attorney, may plead guilty to any lesser offense than that charged which is included in the offenses charged in the complaint or to any lesser degree of the offense charged.

(c) Withdrawal of Guilty Plea. The Court may, in its discretion, allow a defendant to withdraw a plea of guilty whenever it appears that the interests of justice and fairness would be served by doing so.

RULE 27. Pleadings and Motions before Trial; Defenses and Objections.

(a) Pleadings in criminal proceedings shall consist of the complaint and the plea of either guilty or not guilty. All other pleas and motions shall be made in accordance with these rules.

OMAHA TRIBAL CODE (2013)

(b) Motions raising the defenses and objections shall be made as follows:

(1) Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of the prosecution of the complaint other than that it fails to show jurisdiction in the Court or fails to charge an offense must be raised on motion before trial or such shall be deemed waived, unless the Court for good cause shown grants relief from such waiver. Lack of subject matter jurisdiction or failure to charge an offense may be raised as defenses or noticed by the court on its own motion at any stage of the proceeding.

(2) If a motion is decided against a defendant, the trial shall proceed as if no motion were made. If a motion is decided in favor of a defendant, the judge shall alter the proceedings or enter judgment as is appropriate in light of the decision.

RULE 28. Trial Together of Charges.

(a) Two or more defendants may be tried together if they could have been joined in a single complaint and a single defendant may be tried on more than one complaint at a single trial.

(b) If it appears that a defendant or the Tribe is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or other defendants for trial together, the Court may order separate complaints and may order separate trials or provide such other relief as justice requires. In ruling on a motion for severance, the Court may order the Tribe to deliver to the Court for inspection in chambers, any statements made by a defendant which the Tribe intends to introduce in evidence at the trial.

RULE 29. Discovery and Inspection.

(a) The police, or prosecutor, shall, upon request permit the defendant or his attorney to inspect and copy any statements or confessions, police reports, or copies thereof, made by the defendant if such are within the possession or control or reasonably obtainable by the police or prosecution. The police and prosecution shall make similarly available copies of reports of physical, mental or scientific tests or examinations relating to or done on the defendant.

(b) The defendant or his attorney shall reveal by written notice to the Court clerk at least five (5) working days before the trial the names of any witnesses upon whom the defense intends to rely to provide an alibi defense for the defendant. Failure to provide such notice will prevent the use of such witnesses by the defense unless it can be shown by the defense that prior notice was impossible or that no prejudice to the prosecution has resulted, in which case the judge may order the trial delayed or make such other orders as tend to assure a just determination of the case.

(c) The Court shall, upon motion of either party, hold a pretrial conference before trial. The court shall compel the attendance of the defendant and his counsel at the conference. The prosecution may be at the conference. The prosecution may be required by the court to exchange discoverable information at the conference. Neither the defendant nor his attorney, in recognition of his constitutional right against self-incrimination, shall be compelled to disclose anything about his case at any time before the trial, except the names of known alibi witnesses. The court shall at that time consider all pretrial motions and the court may issue such orders as deemed proper to regulate the conduct of trial.

(d) The Prosecution is at all times obligated to disclose to the defendant or his counsel any evidence or information in the possession of the police or prosecution which tends to cast doubt on the guilt of the Defendant for the particular crime charged, or which exculpates him of such crime. This duty arises from the prosecution's duty to seek justice, rather than merely convictions, in any criminal case.

RULE 30. Subpoena.

(a) A subpoena is an order of court issued by a judge or the clerk of the courts. It shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a place and time specified therein. (c) A subpoena may be served any place within the territorial jurisdiction of the Tribal court.

(d) Failure without adequate excuse, to obey a properly served subpoena may be deemed a contempt of court and prosecution thereof may proceed upon the order to the court. No contempt shall be prosecuted unless a return of service of the subpoena has been made on which is endorsed the date, time and place of service and the person performing such service.

CHAPTER 4. TRIAL

RULE 31. Judge Disability.

(a) If by reason of death, sickness or other disability, the judge before whom a jury trial has commenced is unable to proceed with the trial, a mistrial shall be declared and the prosecutor may at his discretion reinstitute trial before another judge.

(3) Cross examination shall be limited to the general scope of direct examination, provided, however, that full examination of all witnesses shall be allowed on direct or cross examination to assure complete development of all relevant facts.

(c) Testimonial Evidence. Testimonial evidence which tends to show the existence or non-existence of any material fact at issue in a criminal trial shall be admitted, provided that:

(1) Testimony, the admission of which would deny either party any right guaranteed by Federal or Tribal law, including but not limited to the right to be confronted with the witnesses against a defendant, shall not be admitted; and

(2) Testimony which, because of its inflammatory nature or its inherent unreliability would tend to have a significant prejudicial impact on the trier of fact that would far outweigh its contribution to proof of the existence or nonexistence of a material fact shall not be admitted; and

(3) Testimony, the admission of which would violate the exclusionary rules on privileged communications under Nebraska law relating to privileges and immunities of witnesses, which law is hereby incorporated by reference, and including, but not limited to the priest/penitent privilege, shall not be admitted; and

(4) Hearsay evidence, to be admissible, must be determined in advance to be not at issue or subsequently confirmed by the, testimony of the person to whom the hearsay statements are imputed.

Except as provided in subsection (c)(2) above, determinations as to the authenticity or reliability of any item of testimony or other evidence shall be made by the trier of fact; the jury in jury trials or the Judge in trials without a jury.

OMAHA TRIBAL CODE (2013)

(c) Physical Evidence. Written documents and other physical evidence shall be received upon being identified, authenticated, and upon a showing of relevance to the action.

(f) Official Documents. Official documents or an official law, record or copy thereof, may be admitted into evidence upon the testimony of an official having custody or official knowledge thereof and without such testimony if the document or record or copy thereof is accompanied by a certificate identifying such thing and stating that it is a true and correct representation of what it purports to be.

(g) Record of Excluded Evidence. In an action tried to a jury, excluded evidence may upon request be included in the record for purposes of appeal and excluded oral testimony shall be put into evidence by means of an offer of proof made out of the hearing of the jury. In an action tried only to the Court, the Judge may receive such excluded testimony into the record.

RULE 33. Exceptions Unnecessary.

Exceptions to rulings or order of the Court are unnecessary, and it is sufficient that a party at the time a ruling or order of the Court is sought makes known to the Court his objection or what grounds therefore; but if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

RULE 34. Harmless Error and Plain Error.

(a) Any error, defect, irregularity or variance that does not affect substantial rights shall be disregarded.

(b) Errors or defects affecting substantial rights may be recognized and acted upon by the Court even though they were not brought to the attention of the Court by counsel.

RULE 36. Jury.

(e) The Court shall permit the defendant or his counsel and the prosecutor to examine the jurors and the Court itself may make such an examination.

(f) Each party shall have the right to challenge an unlimited number of jurors for cause on the basis of lack of qualifications, partiality, or otherwise acceptable reasons. Whether or not cause exists shall be determined by the Judge in all instances. Preemptory challenges of jurors are not allowed by either party.

(g) After selecting the six (6) jurors, and any alternates, the judge shall have them swear to fully consider all evidence and to render an impartial verdict, and shall declare them a jury.

OMAHA TRIBAL CODE (2013)

(h) The Judge shall instruct the jury with regard to the applicable laws, and the jury shall decide all questions of the act on the basis of that law.

(i) The jury shall deliberate in secret and shall return a verdict of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty." All verdicts shall be by unanimous vote. The Judge shall render judgment in accordance with the jury verdict.

(b) The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and each party may provide their own interpreters. An interpreter through whom testimony is received from a defendant or witness or communicated to a defendant or other witness shall be put under oath to faithfully and accurately translate and communicate as required by the Court.

(c) The trial judge or clerk may act as interpreter with the consent of all parties.

RULE 38. Motion for Judgment.

(a) The Court on motion from defendant or on its own motion shall order the entry of a judgment of acquittal of one or more offenses charged in the complaint after the evidence of either side is closed if the evidence is insufficient as matter of law to sustain a conviction of such offenses. A motion for acquittal by the defendant does not affect his right to present evidence.

(b) If a motion for judgment of acquittal is made at the close of all evidence, the Court may reserve decision on the motion, submit the case to the jury and decide the motion any time either before or after the jury returns its verdict or is discharged.

RULE 39. Instructions.

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the request. At the same time, copies of such request shall be furnished to adverse parties. The court shall rule on proposed instructions, and shall then instruct the jury before closing arguments. No party may assign as error any portion of the charge or omission therefrom unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing or if necessary out of the presence of the jury. Sample uniform Jury instructions for criminal cases are available from the Clerk.

(d) When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the Court's own motion. If upon the poll there is not unanimous concurrence, the jury may be
