Subject: New Members Sworn Into Omaha Tribe Council

Macy, Nebraska – The Omaha Tribe is pleased to announce the swearing-in of two council members, Cheyenne Robinson and Leander Merrick, on November 6th, 2024.

Cheyenne Robinson rejoins the council following a year away from her previous term, bringing her experience and dedication back to the important work of tribal governance. Leander Merrick has successfully retained his chair for another term, continuing his commitment to serving the needs of our community.

This transition follows the end of Calvin Harlan’s term, and we thank him for his service and contributions to the tribe during his tenure.

The Omaha Tribe looks forward to the collaborative efforts of Cheyenne and Leander as they work together to address the needs and aspirations of our community members. Jason Sheridan sustains Chairman, Leander Merrick is Vice Chairman, Alan Harlan is Treasurer, Cheyenne Robinson is Secretary, while Dustin LoveJoy, Galen Aldrich, Jerome Hamilton are Omaha Tribe Council Members.
